FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

February 25, 2024

As was announced in December, our elders budgeted for a college/young adult minister to primarily work with our college ministry, with some focus also given to our young adults specifically in their 20s. This morning we are honored to host Jackson and Kiersten Schierling, who are with us today as we talk to them about this possibility. They have spent time with our staff, the college ministry team, and the elders. Jackson will teach the college class today and enjoy lunch with both the college class and the young married class taught by David and Shane. Be sure to give them a warm welcome to Kingwood this morning.

We have been dealing with some of the giants that attack our faith. We have been focusing on some serious things like anger, anxiety/worry, guilt, and idolatry. Today's sermon is no different because apathy is something that is attacking our walk with Jesus to a great degree. That isn't an indictment of us at Kingwood, but I hope you will understand what I mean by that after the message today. I think apathy can be a killer of a spiritual life and I hope to challenge us to be mindful of that as we try to walk with Jesus daily.

I want to thank all of our ministry leaders that were able to attend our ministry leaders dinner last night. I know some were unable to attend, and I appreciate you too. Our ministry leaders here at Kingwood do so many things to help reach the lost, serve one another, and serve our Lord in ways that glorify Him. Thanks for all you do and I hope you enjoyed the time together.
