FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

April 7, 2024

A new round of class Intensives begins this morning, and I hope that you will choose the one that best fits your needs and make it a priority to attend. I have enjoyed this new concept of Intensives and I am looking forward to teaching on Romans 8 this month. Romans 8 is one of the most powerful chapters of the New Testament, and I am excited to begin our dive into it today. Be in prayer for each of our teachers during these Intensives, and I know you will be blessed by the one you choose to be a part of.

Today is our last Mission Kitchen for the Honduras Mission trip in July. This trip will be here before you know it, and those that are making plans to work in Honduras are getting excited as the dates grow closer. I hope that many of you will stay and enjoy this meal, while donating to the cause of the team. We appreciate each of you for supporting us and we look forward to representing Kingwood on this journey.

I want to send a huge shout out to Glenn Garner and the Kingwood Kitchen team for all they are doing here at Kingwood. From the Wednesday meals to special occasions, their work is greatly appreciated and fills a great need. Our growing numbers for the Wednesday meals is encouraging and if you are not coming to those, let me encourage you to begin doing so. It's great food and fellowship. Join us in class before or after the meal and spend this time with the Kingwood family!
