FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

March 17, 2024

I want to say a huge thank you to Adam Reynolds and Brett VanZant for stepping in and leading our Couples Retreat in Pigeon Forge last weekend. With my mother's stroke, Susie and I were unable to attend but Adam jumped in, and from all accounts, did a great job in facilitating each session. Brett led worship and some other activities as well. I appreciate each of them for their willingness to make sure the weekend went on without a hitch. Thank you to those that went, and I pray this weekend was a great benefit to you. I already look forward to next year's and hope many more of you will join us.

You are reminded just how blessed you are to be a part of a loving church family when difficult times hit you or your family. My family, certainly, has been going through it for awhile now but God is so good to us and He extends His care to us through every note, text, call, visit, food, prayer, and other acts of love that you show us. I was talking with someone at the hospital last week and mentioned that I don't know how people get through difficulties without God and a loving church family. I know nonbelievers face trying times and find ways to cope, but I never want to even begin imagining a world where I am faced with these difficulties without God and the Body of Christ. Words can't suffice but please know how much we love you and are grateful for you. You make our life a joy to live and we are honored to be a part of the great Kingwood family. Thank you for being who you are, for taking such good care of us, and loving us even though we fall way short of your love. Susie and I love you all!
