FROM THE PREACHER'S DESK

March 3, 2024

I commented last week that I was tired after hearing Brett mention that Kingwood had something going on every day of the coming week during the opening to worship. Of course I was joking, but what a tremendous blessing it truly is to have so many great opportunities in any given week. This is only made possible by the fact that we have so many of you involved in various ministries. It is a blessing to watch you engage in these and it's a blessing to be a small part of the work here. Thanks for what you do and let's keep pressing on!

We had a great visit with Jackson Shierling last week concerning our college and young adult ministry position. Our search will continue in the coming weeks as Jackson has accepted a campus ministry position elsewhere. We are excited for them and pray God will bless his new work. We continue to search for candidates and we know that God will bring the absolute best fit to us in His time. Keep praying as we continue in these early days of our search efforts.

Our Candle Wishes party was yesterday and I want to give a huge thanks to Melanie Gardner for her incredible leadership of this effort, and to each of you who bought presents, donated money, prepared the meal, brought cupcakes, and attended the party to support these families. It is always a blessing to see the smiles on the faces of these children and I am so thankful that we get this chance to celebrate them each March. Thanks again for all those involved.
